SDDS Classroom | 2035 Hurley Way, Suite 200 • Sacramento

Fraud and embezzlement are among the most common—and costly—financial risks facing dental practices. This session helps dentists understand how internal fraud occurs, why practices are vulnerable, and how to reduce risk using CPA recommended internal controls and banking best practices.

Learn to recognize warning signs, strengthen financial oversight, and implement practical banking tools that protect your practice without disrupting daily operations.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify common types of fraud and embezzlement in dental practices
- Recognize warning signs and risk factors associated with internal theft
- Implement effective internal controls and financial safeguards
- Understand appropriate steps to take when fraud is suspected or discovered

This course is ideal for dental practice owners and practice buyers seeking to safeguard their practice assets and reduce financial losses.
