

The View From the Labor Commissioner's Office

Presented by Von Boyenger, Sr. Deputy Labor Commissioner; Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, Department of Industrial Relations

Wednesday, January 29, 2025

12–1:30pm | Webinar

This course provides an exploration of the common workplace claims and disputes seen by the Labor Commissioner's Office. Participants will gain valuable insights into the types of cases handled, including wage and hour violations, workplace discrimination, retaliation, and employee misclassification.

Practice owners and practice managers will have a better understanding of labor laws and their enforcement. Whether you are looking to prevent disputes, resolve conflicts effectively, or simply stay informed about workplace rights and responsibilities, this session provides actionable knowledge directly from a key decision-maker in the field.

Learning objectives:

- Trends in workplace disputes and emerging issues.
- The processes for filing and resolving claims.
- Best practices to ensure compliance with labor laws.
