* Notes regarding fair use of quotes, etc within an article:

- From articles: 3 sentences allowable, within quotes, with attribution
- From books: 3 paragraphs allowable, within quotes, with attribution

 Notes regarding photos:

- The owner of the work is the creator (i.e., the owner of a ppt slide is the presentation creator; owner of a photograph is the photographer)
- Crowd photos are public domain, if no individual is specifically recognizable

Article Length:

- 850-1000 words, in the interest of available space and layout restrictions within the publication
- If you exceed 1000 words, your article may need to be edited down
- For social media, please include a 40 word lead-in/teaser for your article.

Formatting:

- Please submit in a Word document and place one (1) space after periods and do not use the tab key.
- Special formatting is not necessary. SDDS will handle stylistic elements.
- Include full name of author and issue in the title (ex. Jon_Doe_DDS_Oct14.doc)

Author Photo/Bio: Other Photos:

- To accompany your article, please submit a high-quality head shot (300 dpi, jpg or tiff), in digital form, as an email attachment.
- Bio must not exceed 70 words. Refer to current Nuggets for format style.

- Please provide any photos you would like to include in high-quality digital form (300dpi minimum, jpg or tiff), as email attachments.
- Please DO NOT place images in Word or body of email, as this lowers image quality.

Copies of Magazine:

- Upon publication, two (2) copies of the issue in which your article runs will be mailed to the address provided on your Author Agreement (at right).

Author Agreement:

- Please complete an Author Agreement form for SDDS to keep on file. If no Author Agreement is submitted, your article may not be printed in this issue.
